

Dianne Baker

- Dianne Baker, who retired following the 2005 season after 30 years of coaching, built Texas Woman's University into one of the top programs in NCAA Division II.
- Baker returned to her alma mater after a 17-year stint as the head coach and assistant athletics director at Stephen F. Austin State, where she led the Ladyjacks to an NCAA Division II national championship in 1986.
- In addition to her coaching experience, Baker is the author of two best selling books, "Winning Softball Drills" and "Winning Softball Practice Manual and Drills."
- In 2004, Baker became Schutt Sports' National Promotions Manager for Softball/Baseball.
- In 2000, Baker was given the NCAA's Silver Anniversary Award, one of the association's highest honors.
- Baker is a member of both the Stephen F. Austin and Texas Woman's University Halls of Fame and was also inducted into the NFCA Hall of Fame in 1998.